JND Legal Administration Taps Amanda Horn as Senior Vice President of Client Services

Appointment of Industry Veteran Supports Company's Rapid Growth Trajectory and Dedication to Client Services

Seattle, WA (May 24, 2016) – JND Legal Administration, a business outsourcing firm focused on the management and administration of large-scale class action, bankruptcy and mass tort claims, today announced the appointment of Amanda Horn as SVP of client services as a critical step in managing accelerated company growth.

“The last few months have been very exciting at JND as we’ve grown significantly both in the number of engagements we’ve undertaken for clients, as well as the size of those engagements,” said Jennifer Keough, JND co-founder and CEO of Class Action Administration. “We are extraordinarily pleased to have Amanda join our leadership team, ensuring that every one of our clients can experience the exemplary service they’ve come to know from us.”

An industry veteran, Horn joins JND after more than 20 years in various leadership roles at Garden City Group, LLC (GCG) and Gilardi & Co., LLC.

“Amanda brings a rare blend of experience and talent to JND as a class action attorney and later one of the sharpest people within the legal administration world,” Keough added. “We are very lucky to have her and we are all very excited about the immediate, positive impact she will bring at JND.”

According to Keough, Horn brings passion and a wealth of knowledge in legal administration processes having led many high-profile administrations in a variety of sectors including the music industry, financial services, annuity, consumer and employment, as well as cases involving data breach and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA).

Building on her extensive experience and successes, in this new role, Horn will lead the client services team and be actively involved in growing the business. She will drive strategic client direction and ensure client experience is remarkable at every touch point.

“I’ve been fortunate to have worked with the founders of JND over the years and it was a logical extension when they asked me to join the team and work with them again,” said Horn. “I am thrilled to be a part of the team and look forward to helping drive JND’s success and setting the company apart by providing unmatched client service and industry knowledge.”

In addition to her vast administrative experience, Horn was also an attorney with Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP. She earned her bachelor’s degree at the University of California, Los Angeles and received her Juris Doctor from Willamette University. She is licensed to practice law in the states of California and Oregon.
